Grid road closed in rush-hour for air ambulance rescue

A WOMAN was airlifted to hospital after trying to climb down from a city bridge.

Police closed off the H5 Portway between the north and south Secklow roundabout during rush hour on Friday after the woman was found lying unconscious on the grass verge.

Witnesses told police she had been walking across a bridge when she dropped her mobile phone over the side.

They saw her climb down the bridge towards the verge but she fell into some bushes and was knocked out.

A passing driver saw her on the ground and called the police, who closed the road from 5pm to 5.50pm so that the air ambulance could land.

A spokesman for Warwickshire and Northamptonshire Air Ambulance Service said: "She was semi-conscious when we arrived.

"She was stabilised at the scene but because of the possibility that there could have been a brain injury she was flown to the brain injury centre at Walsgrove Hospital in Coventry."

Police paedophile paper found lying in car park

Margaret Bollen: Found confidential police papers in a city car park

BY ALICIA BABAEE

alicia.babaee@mk-news.co.uk

A CONFIDENTIAL police document naming a suspected paedophile was found in a car park outside a city bookshop.

The piece of paper details the name and date of someone suspected of downloading child pornography, as well as the name of the investigating officer.

Northamptonshire Police is now investigating how the first page of a three-page document belonging to them came to be in Milton Keynes.

Loughton resident Margaret Bollen picked it up outside Borders book shop next to the National Hockey Stadium on Saturday.

The name of a suspect should not be in the public realm until charges have been brought.

Mrs Bollen, a 51-year-old company secretary and author, picked up the paper with some leaflets she had dropped in the car park.

It wasn't until she got home that she realised she had it.

She said: "I used to work at a police station and documents like that shouldn't leave the building. It should have been shredded.

"There was enough information to identify who the suspect is.

"It could have serious repercussions for people, it could have quite a detrimental effect on that person's life if they're innocent.

"They could end up with a brick through their window if it got into the wrong hands. I was going to hand it into the police station, but then it would have been brushed under the carpet."

Northamptonshire Police yesterday claimed it was an isolated incident.

Detective Chief Inspector Kate Elliot said: "We have investigated how this page of a longer document came to be in this location and believe that it happened accidentally. It was a one-off incident, but is still highly regrettable.

"We are also reviewing our working practices around the security of documentation, which is something we take extremely seriously.

"This page relates to an on-going, active investigation and clearly should not be in the public domain

"It had been printed out because there is a legal requirement for police to keep all documentation around investigations until a case has been completed.

"We are taking steps to take back the page that has been found and will be speaking to the person who the documentation relates to, to talk to them about what has happened."

Demolition option for 70s Serpentine

Badly designed: Serpentine Court

BY ALICIA BABAEE
alicia.babaee@mk-news.co.uk

THE future of Serpentine Court looks uncertain.

The block of flats and shopping area on the Lakes Estate was built in the 1970s but now the council is considering whether to knock it down.

Last week a meeting was held at Leon School and Sports College for residents, businesses and users of the community facilities to discuss problems with the area.

It came in response to a questionnaire completed by Lakes Estate residents earlier this year.

Serpentine Court is home to around 200 residents, business and community initiatives such as the CrossLinks Centre.

Jeanette Marling, chairman of the Lakes Estate Residents' Association, said: "People tend not to get involved in these things, there's a bit of apathy because people don't think anything is going to happen.

"But they need to get involved.

"Most people would like to see it gone. If you look at it, it's not well designed. There's a lot of wasted space."

Lakes Estate residents are invited to another meeting at the community centre on Thursday at 7.30pm to discuss the whole of the estate.

A spokesman for Milton Keynes Council said: "This was the first in a series of meetings we will be holding with local residents to discuss the future of Serpentine Court. Ideas put forward ranged from refurbishment to completely demolishing the block.

"Our next meeting is on November 7 and we would encourage as many residents to come along as possible to share their views."

Chainsaw massacre

A MAN claims he was a victim of a Middleton chainsaw massacre.

On hearing a noise outside, journalist Bryan Rimmer, of Woodall Close, emerged from his house to find that his lovingly tended bushes had been cut to shreds by an unknown man brandishing a petrol-powered hedge trimmer.

However, Mr Rimmer had not employed a gardener.

The man, who said he was John Durkin, had cut hedges in three gardens in the street including one next to Mr Rimmer's which is empty.

When confronted he claimed to be from the council before making a swift exit in a Mercedes car.

Mr Rimmer checked with the council, which said he was not working for them as they have not yet adopted the road.

He also reported the incident to police.

The man returned and Mr Rimmer questioned him again. He admitted that he was a contractor working for Stephenson, the housing developer.

Mr Rimmer said: "I thought 'What's going on? It looks like it's been chewed by a bear with bad teeth.

Bushwhacked: Bryan Rimmer's devastated hedges

John Durkin

"The guy said he'd driven all the way up from London to do this."

Police and council officers turned up to investigate.

When quizzed by MK NEWS Stephenson Developments' owner Martin Stephenson said it has maintenance agreements with contractors across the country and would investigate the matter.

Police officers were unable to do anything because it is a civil and not a criminal offence.

Mr Rimmer continued: "You couldn't make this up – some guy just turns up and chops up your hedge. The whole thing's been vandalised, it's four years of hard work torn up."

He said his wife, Jan, who is a director of an international publishing company, spent four years hand shaping the hedge and was distraught to get home to find all her work destroyed.

Mr Rimmer is considering taking action against the hedge vandal for impersonating a council officer, corporate vandalism and criminal damage.

Students go fishing in leisure centre lakes

CARP, roach and goldfish are among the residents being removed from Bletchley's ornamental lakes to make way for the new leisure centre.

Developers began draining the two foot deep lakes yesterday and students from an agricultural college were called in to help move the fish.

A dozen students who are studying fish management at Shuttleworth College, near Biggleswade helped catch and transport the fish to new homes.

The relocation was approved and overseen by the Environmental Agency.

The fish were first given a health check to make sure they were clear of parasites.

They were then caught using nets and an electric fishing unit to momentarily stun fish hiding in hard-to-reach areas.

The roach are being moved to fishing lakes in Emberton Park and the rest of the fish will be taken to the college.

It will take around six days to completely drain the lakes.

The developers of the new £18million leisure centre hope to start work on a new reception and 180-space multi-storey car park off Weston Road in November.

Net result: Fish from leisure lakes

Artists Bill Billing and Paul Smith with the sculpture in the Secret Garden

Frozen in time

A COUPLE from the 60s has been frozen in time to celebrate Wolverton's past.

A sculpture depicting an elderly couple watching TV has been unveiled in the Secret Garden, opposite Wolverton Station.

It has been placed where the living room of one of six houses which were demolished nearly 50 years ago would have stood.

The couple look like they were turned to stone when the houses were taken down.

It was created by community artists Bill Billings MBE and Paul Smith, who worked with ten GCSE art students from The Radcliffe School in Wolverton.

The original idea was by landscape architect Neil Higson, who designed the Secret Garden.

The piece was unveiled by the mayor of Milton Keynes, Mike Barry, yesterday.

Cllr Barry said: "I want to say congratulations to everybody involved, I think this sculpture will be put down in history and will be here a long long time."

The project was funded by Creative Partnerships and Milton Keynes Community Foundation's Baker Tilly Fund.

Artist Bill Billings said: "It puts the Royal College to shame what these kids have produced in a weeks work."

Tributes to dead dust cart driver

BY ROB GIBSON
rob.gibson@mk-news.co.uk

THE family of Carmino Colucci has paid tribute to a 'well-respected family man' after he was killed when his van crashed into a builders' merchant.

Mr Colucci, 47, of Brooklands Road, Bletchley, was driving a Cory Environmental rubbish van when it hit the Travis Perkins building on Simpson Road, Fenny Stratford, at 7.15am on Thursday.

His van veered off the road and into the corner of the building.

Two fire crews attended from Bletchley and Great Holm to cut Mr Colucci free while paramedics treated him.

However, Mr Colucci was pronounced dead at Milton Keynes Hospital later that day.

His sister, Emilia Deering, said: "He was everybody's friend. He would be out and about in his van and everybody would say hello to him. He loved his job and was well-respected by everyone.

"The number of people who have turned up to pay their respects has been touching."

Mr Colucci was born in a small town near Naples, Italy, and moved to Milton Keynes nearly 40 years ago when he was seven.

He is survived by his mother, two sisters, ex-wife and eight-year-old son.

Mrs Deering said: "We're a very close family and he was such a nice man. He was a great father and his nieces and nephews loved spending time with him.

"His boy was like a shadow to him, he followed him everywhere.

"He used to make toys for the children and take them for a ride on their bikes."

Former colleagues at Cory Environmental, the council's waste contractor, also paid their respects to Mr Colucci, whose funeral will take place at St Thomas Aquinas in Bletchley.

Simpson Road was closed until just after 11am while the van was removed from the scene and a passenger was also taken to hospital, suffering from minor injuries.

Travis Perkins reopened later that afternoon following a full survey of the store by structural engineers.

Support group greets Parkinson's nurse

SIR – The article last week' featuring the newly appointed Parkinson's Specialist Nurse is welcome news.

Bill McCloskey and others are to be congratulated for having worked so hard in the campaign for a nurse. It has been a long struggle but those who have met Jane are already saying what a huge help she is going to be.

The Parkinson's Support Group in Milton Keynes is committed to helping Jane in every way possible. The Group meets from 2-4pm on the last Wednesday of each month except December.

Meetings are held at Centrecom, 602 North Row, Central Milton Keynes (free car parking is available nearby).

Anyone who would like to have further information or who is able to help the local group as a volunteer, should contact me on 01908 660342.

Stop banging on

SIR – Once again we start the fireworks noise and nuisance campaign. It happens every year but no-one seems to do anything positive.

As far back as January 2004 we had Brian White (then LabourMP) introducing a private member's'bill to 'severly restrict the fast increasing curse of fireworks'.

Mark Lancaster MP was involved in the presentation of this bill, and in July 2004 we were promised severe restrictions on the use of fireworks.

Again in 2004 Phyllis Starkey MP promised that we would have radical changes for the better by 'next November'" – what has happened? absolutely nothing.

Can the MPs, Environmental Health or MK Police please tell us what the current situation is concerning (a) sale of fireworks; (b) time and date restrictions for use of fireworks; (c) noice levels of fireworks?

Can they also tell us what socially-minded citizens can do to curb the irresponsible behaviour of those who start letting off fireworks in early October each year and do not stop doing so until mid January of the following year?

Motorists' rights

SIR – I read with interest your article by Jane Hamilton on the development work going on around Milton Keynes at the moment.

My only comments concern the improvements the Portway and Grafton Gate roundabouts.

Why go through the expense of increasing the number of lanes, and then not bother to tell drivers which lanes are actually for turning right, instead having four lanes marked as straight on?

Drivers turning right only use the furthest right lane, and drivers going straight on only use the furthest left, the two new lanes in the middle being virtually empty as drivers are not sure where they actually go.

I have seen this many times when using both of this roundabouts.

Can we have some right turn arrows please?
Liam Hockings

War to end wars

SIR – I would like to take issue with Mr H Hanson's letter 'Wear a 'no more war poppy' on November 11'.

Of course, along with many others, I do not condone war but Mr Hanson's letter shows a failure to understand why sometimes war is necessary to prevent a far worse outcome.

Afghanistan is a case in point. If NATO troops were not presently in this country how many more 9/11s might have happened since 2001 Afghanistan was a breeding ground for Al Qaeda's hatred of the West and would no doubt continue to be a haven for conspirators intent on plotting its downfall.

Your average Afghan welcomes the West's intervention, freeing them from the brute Taliban regime and helping to rebuild, albeit slowly, their infrastructure.

As a German national I only wish that someone had had the same foresight to intervene before Germany invaded Austria and Poland thus preventing the loss of millions of lives during the Second World War.

If it takes a war to prevent further wars, ignoring it isn't a option is it? We should wear poppies in recognition of those who have sacrificed their lives for this country, including those who sought to defend the freedoms we enjoy in this country today.

Those freedoms might well be threatened if we choose to follow Mr Hanson's encouragement for peace without violence when dealing with those who despise our freedoms and are intent on destroying everything we in the West hold dear.

Unfortunately that battleground is not just here in the West but is also in places such as Afghanistan.

Core blimey

SIR – Milton Keynes Council is presently drawing-up a new city plan.

The new Local Development Framework (LDF) will take city expansion up to 2026 and beyond and is to replace the current Local Plan which runs out in 2011.

As a preliminary, a core strategy needs to be produced to guide the LDF.

This is currently being consulted on with the closing date for comment on November 8.

The core strategy is a highly important stage in planning the future of our community.

If MK gets it wrong it will send the city off in the wrong direction in terms of its evolution.

The draft startegy sets itself the objective of 'creating sustainable development'. The extent to which a smaller carbon footprint will be achieved for the city will be a measure of the success, or otherwise, of the work being done.

The planning of MK has been overtaken by events.

A 'city designed for the car' seemed a very desirable and realistic concept 40 years ago, but with our need now to urgently react to the threat of global warming and climate change, we need a different kind of response – a different kind of city.

The council often talks about 'vision' and 'leadership' and insists that it 'champions change', 'embraces evolution' and sees MK as a city that 'thinks differently'.

Its big challenge is to adapt to the new circumstances but will the council be bold enough to come up with the right answers?

The acid test will be what sort of core strategy it dares to produce.

Latimer, Stony Stratford

Eggs addled thinking on pigeon problem

SIR – I wonder if any pigeons were reading your story about the Mellish Court pigeon problem?

When we kept hens and they weren't providing us with sufficient eggs we solved the problem by putting a porcelain egg in the nest box.

The hens didn't like seeing a single egg in the box so it encouraged them to start producing more eggs to keep it company.

We were then always certain of an ample supply of eggs.

I hope the contractors who are installing nesting boxes have taken this possibility into account and made sure that a so-called 'solution' doesn't actually make the problem worse.
Ken Blundell
Fishermead

SIR – Your recent report on a dispute over the final position of additional signs for the Bletchley & Fenny Stratford area stated that the dispute was finally resolved by a combination of people power and common sense.

In keeping with the rest of MK all approach roads to Bletchley and Fenny Stratford have always been clearly marked with standard white and black directional signs.

The Government has recently stated that all local councils should reduce 'roadside clutter' caused by ever-increasing unnecessary road signs.

Unfortunately I live within the area under the influence of Bletchley Town Council and notice many simple examples of council neglect such as the poor condition of the pavements and roads.

All these additional signs will act as a permanant reminder of how Bletchley Town Council chose to dispose of £34,000 of taxpayers money.

I hope the other areas of Milton Keynes do not copy West Bletchley's tribal instinct of placing territorial markers at every point where one postal area meets another.

It would now seem that Bletchley Town Council has started the pantomime season a few weeks earlier than MK Theatre.
Barrie Butcher
Whalley Drive, Bletchley

■ SIR – Regarding the ongoing saga of the Bletchley signs, it is far from clear that people power has prevailed.

What I see is a small, highly vocal group telling the rest of us what the people of Fenny Stratford think.

How can they possibly know?

Perhaps some think, like me, that spending £30,000 on the signs was a waste of money and spending thousands more on new signs is throwing good money after bad.

And why the sudden fuss over the 'codebreakers'? Has anyone wondered why they were based in Bletchley? Here is my theory. Having assembled the finest mathematical minds to crack the Enigma code, the last thing the military wanted was for the team to be accidentally killed in an air raid. So they looked for a place which was so obscure and insignificant that the Germans wouldn't bother to bomb it.

Bletchley was top of the list.

Coma man is cooking up football fundraiser

BY ALICIA BABAEE
alicia.babaee@mk-news.co.uk

A WAREHOUSE worker who was left fighting for his life when dozens of ovens fell onto him, is putting an all-day event to raise money for the intensive care unit that saved him.

Louis Andrews, 23, suffered serious head and brain injuries in June 2007 when a beam collapsed at Newport Pagnell kitchen appliance company Waterline Limited, based at Jenna House in North Crawley Road.

Twenty-six ovens, each weighing 41kg, fell onto him.

Now Mr Andrews, who was in a coma and spent nearly 15 weeks in intensive care, at Milton Keynes Hospital wants to raise funds for the unit.

He said: "I spent most of the time unconscious. But I believe the intensive care staff saved my life on at least three occasions."

He is still undergoing rehabilitation and needs a carer for 40 hours a week.

He is planning an all-day event including six-a-side football tournament and family day at Shenley Leisure Centre – which is letting him use free of charge – followed by a music gig and raffle at The Clock Inn at Shenley Church End.

The survivor also plans to approach TV show Soccer AM to see if he can borrow the inflatable Road To Wembley game made famous by the programme.

Such is the size of the event that it will not take place until September next year.

But already he is looking for football teams and companies to donate raffle prizes.

Mr Andrews, who also suffered a fractured cheekbone, broken rib and collapsed lung, said: "The first prognosis my family was given was that I would never walk again.

> They said I'd never be an able-bodied person again. I'm so grateful for everything they did in intensive care, I keep going in to see them
> – Louis Andrews who wants to raise cash for the intensive care unit at MK Hospital

"They said I'd never be an able-bodied person again. I'm so grateful for everything they did in intensive care, I keep going in to see them."

The effects he has been left with are similar to that of someone who's suffered a stroke. He finally left hospital on October 27.

Recently Waterline Limited was fined £66,000 (reduced from a possible £100,000 for an early guilty plea) and was ordered to pay £12,890.36 after admitting one count relating to safe working conditions for employees under the Health & Safety at Work Act 1974.

Environmental health officers from Milton Keynes Council had visited the warehouse and found that it was commonplace for staff to be working close to forklift trucks which is exactly what Mr Andrews was doing when the accident happened.

■ Football teams and companies willing to donate prizes should e-mail Mr Andrews at ITUcharityday@hotmail.co.uk

Dispersal order used to prevent gang fight

AN organised gang fight between school children was thwarted by police using new powers to kerb anti-social behaviour.

Officers received reports that a large scale fight had been planned by pupils in Newport Pagnell on a Monday night and were at the scene to stop any violence developing.

They warned the youths that they would be arrested if they returned.

The incident, on September 24, highlights new powers since a dispersal order for Newport Pagnell started on June 1.

Police Inspector Helen Corbett said: "Officers have seized alcohol from youths and asked groups to move on as part of the dispersal order and it is having a clear effect of the town."

The order allows police officers and Police Community Support Officers to deal with groups of two or more people, authorising them to be moved away from the designated area and ordered not to return within a 24-hour period.

The Newport Pagnell order is due to expire on Saturday December 1.

Several arrests have been made for public order offences, possession of Class C drugs and many stop checks have been carried out.

Two young boys have also been escorted back to their home addresses.

Inspector Corbett said: "We received reports that there were 40 to 50 youths believed to be from Ousedale School and Giffard Park County Combined School. One of them had a golf club but they ran off.

"A number of youths were spoken to."

Newport Town Council is applying for a drinking control zone for the whole town.

Migrant numbers grow

MORE than 9,000 migrants have applied for a National Insurance Number in Milton Keynes within the past three years.

Last year 3,220 migrants applied.

City MP Mark Lancaster uncovered the figures when he tabled a question to the Secretary of State for Work and Pensions.

He asked how many foreign nationals in the Milton Keynes unitary authority were issued with NI numbers in the past five years.

In 2004/05, there were 2,330 applications and in 2005/06 there were 2,950 applications.

Mr Lancaster said: "I haven't got a problem with immigrant workers coming to Milton Keynes for work. The problem I have got is the pressure on our already creaking housing stock. That is an awful lot of people coming in."

Letters to The Editor, MK NEWS, 1 Diamond Court, Fox Milne, Milton Keynes MK15 0DU | letters@mk-news.co.uk

Out with a shout

SIR – Milton Keynes City? Definitely not.

The town is merely a sprawl of housing estates occupying an area of North East Buckinghamshire as enacted by Parliament in 1967.

The housing sprawl happens to have swallowed up several market towns and parishes all of which are mentioned in the Domesday Survey.

If one could geo-satellite the Domesday county and parish boundaries which delineate Milton Keynes, two people, the other following the Ordnance Survey boundary would, very probably be within shouting distance of each other for most of their circumperambulation.

A shopping centre yes, but it has no architectural merit inside or out and is dominated by the same lareg retail businesses to be found in any othe high street.

Egg box type buildings, which should give little mental stimulation are easy to erect and have no merit, to my eyes at least.

J L Lean
Sokeman Close, Greenleys

Bath House meet

SIR – I would like to thank the many residents of Wolverton for taking the time and interest to attend our community focused meeting of environment policy and devlopment committee held at the Old Bath House Community Centre in Wolverton on October 23.

In particular I would like to thank Wolverton Town Council for hosting the committee and the three Wolverton MK Council members for providing an agenda filled with lively, topical issues of concerns to the town.

A summary report of the issues coverd will be presented to the next formal meeting of the EPDC in November and those members of the public who gave their names and address at the meeting will receive written feedback on the general and/or specific issues raised.

Cllr David Hopkins
Chairman, environment policy and devlopment committee

Fair shares

SIR – Last week, an anonymous writer suggested that 'greedy landlords' were buying up 'affordable homes'.

This would seem to be entirely implausible given affordable homes (where I assume affordable means 'shared ownership') are only available to a subset of society, often referred to as 'key workers'.

On this subject, the term 'key worker' clearly discriminates in favour of public sector workers.

Why do mechanics, builders, plumbers, supermarket checkout staff, secretaries and retail staff not deserve a shared ownership home?

It's interesting to note the Liberal Democrats have endorsed a report that defines a town planner to be a key worker!

The affordable housing system is broken; we need more, not less, shared ownership housing, and everyone, not just a minority, should have the opportunity to apply.

I'd encourage everyone to think very hard about the MK growth agenda: Doyou want your children to grow up in a society where they have to queue for a council house or buy a home in another (more well run) town, or do you want them to have the opportunity to buy a share in a home regardlessof their profession?

John Baker
Broughton

Uniform response

SIR – Regarding the letter from Mrs J McKenyie on her remarks about nurses wearing uniforms outside the hospital.

As a nurse at Milton Keynes Hospital we do not have changing areas to use, she obviously does not realise that.

How would district nurses and care workers cope? Or are they expected to change at the clients' houses?

It has never been proved that Milton Keynes Hospital is the sole cause of infection, most infections are community based. So maybe she should bring a set of clothes to change into before leaving the hospital.

Teamwork

SIR – Re last week's article 'Councillor couple under scrutiny'.

Just recently Campbell Park Parish Councillors and staff spent a fruitful day discussing priorities and setting direction for the year ahead.

This meant everyone working together, as a team, with the best interest of their residents in mind.

This, along with the many things that CPPC has achieved is a much more accurate reflection of what we do.

Cllr Martin Petchey
Chairman of council

Waste of energy

SIR – The letter approving of wind turbines by R Barfoot last week is thoughtful and clearly comes from a person who is concerned about the environment.

However, does he not wonder why, if there is all this free energy to be had from windpower, the world is not already blanketed by windtowers?

The answer to this conundrum is that, alas, more energy is required to construct and build them than can be trickled out of them over their lifespan.

The things only last 20 to 25 years due to wear out of moving parts and metal fatigue.

The energy required to mine the metal ore, transport and refinement, engineer the metals, erect the heavy machinery, etc, is greater than can ever be recouped from the turbines.

And on top of this there is the energy required in constructing the colossal amount of concrete foundation needed for each tower.

Food for thought?

COMPETITION

Lead out England's U21s at stadium:mk

and take home a goody bag

YOU could be leading out the England team at stadium:mk next month as part of our fantastic competition to find two young England flag bearers.

MK NEWS has teamed up with MK Dons and the Football Association to offer two lucky winners the chance to lead out the teams and carry the England flag for the vital UEFA European Under-21 Championship Qualifier against Bulgaria on Friday, November 16,

Stuart Pearce's team have won four out of four games in Qualifying Group Three so far and could take a giant step towards the 2009 Championships with another win in Milton Keynes.

Tickets for stadium:mk's first ever England International sold out in double-quick time as supporters scramble to get a glimpse of Premier League stars such as Arsenal's Theo Walcott, West Ham's Mark Noble and Newcastle defender Steven Taylor.

But rather than just watching England's young lions in action, you could be walking out with them in front of 21,000 fans!

After sampling the atmosphere out on the pitch during the national anthems, you and your parent or guardian will take your seats in the stands to see England in action from some of the best seats in the house.

You'll also be provided with kit to wear on the night plus an England goody bag to take home.

Theo Walcott

HOW TO ENTER

To be in with a chance of winning, all you have to do is answer the following question:

England striker Theo Walcott plays for which Premier League club?

Send your answer complete with your name, address, age and contact telephone number to MK NEWS, 1 Diamond Court, Fox Milne, Milton Keynes, Bucks, MK15 0DU.

Or you can enter by e-mailing competitions@mk-news.co.uk

Entrants must be aged 8-12. Winners will receive two tickets for the match and should be accompanied by a responsible adult.

Closing date for the competition is November 7.

First two drawn out of the hat wins and the editors decision is final.

No plans for rubbish tax

MILTON Keynes Council says it has no plans to introduce a scheme to charge households according to the amount of rubbish they throw away.

The Government announced on Tuesday council's would have new powers to introduce pay-as-you-throw rubbish charges

MPs warn the UK could face fines of up to £180m a year from the European Commission if it does not cut the amount of waste dumped in landfill.

However Douglas McCall, cabinet member for the environment said: "I believe it is right that we can't continue to put waste in the ground as it is not sustainable, both economically and environmentally.

"But the recycling rate in Milton Keynes has trebled since we took control in 2002 and I don't feel that we need to introduce one of these schemes."

"It is important to make people realise that waste does cost residents already.

"Each household currently pays £25 each year on landfill tax, making £2.5 million for the whole of Milton Keynes."

Winds thwart Ice Gems' record attempt

A GROUP of cheerleaders has breezed into the record books by overcoming strong winds to build a human pyramid.

MK Lightning's cheerleaders, The Ice Gems, broke the British Record for the largest cheerleading stunt group by standing on each other's shoulders in a pyramid formation in Bletchley on Sunday.

They targeted two records, one for the biggest number of cheerleaders in a human pyramid and the other for the highest pyramid.

Forty-three cheerleaders were involved, breaking the previous record of 38, but attempts to create a four-level pyramid had to be abandoned when high winds began to shake the girls on the third level.

MK Dons chairman Pete Winkelman acted as invigilating officer for the attempt, which coincided with the opening of the completed Queensway revamp.

Director of the Ice Gems, Fiona Delaney, said: "Breaking the British title for the largest pyramid is another great achievement for cheerleading in Milton Keynes."

The squad now hopes to set the record for the tallest pyramid at an indoor event in December where they will be fundraising to compete in the world championships in America in March 2008.

The Ice Gems first broke into the record books last November when they took part in the Bruce Forsyth Big Dance Team which holds the Guinness World Record for the largest dance set.

Parks Trust on patrol in the city of trees

BY LAURA HANNAM
laura.hannam@mk-news.co.uk

NO one in Milton Keynes is ever more than a half a mile from a park.

The city is one of the greenest in the country with acres and acres of parkland, woods, lakes and river valleys.

Next time you are jogging around Willen Lake, cycling through the Ouse Valley Park or enjoying the views at Campbell Park think of the people who are working hard to keep these areas green, safe and tidy for you to enjoy.

Milton Keynes Parks Trust cares for 4,500 acres of parkland and green space – more than 20 per cent of the new city area.

This includes the landscaping along the grid roads with 80 miles of trees, shrubs and flowers covering 1,000 acres.

Milton Keynes has 22 million trees and the Parks Trust is still planting trees and shrubs at an average of almost 100 a day.

All this is managed by six people in the trust's landscape team.

Landscape officer Tony Jenner, who has been with the Parks Trust for three and a half years, manages an area including Campbell Park, Willen Lake, Linford Wood, Linford Manor Park and Pineham.

He makes sure the trees, shrubs and grass in the parks, along the grid roads and in the woodlands are trimmed regularly and replanted when needed.

The work, overseen by Tony, is carried out by local landscape contractors employed by the trust.

Tony took me to Shenley Wood where they have recently started work coppicing the shrubbery.

Bear necessity: Parks Trust landscape officer Tony Jenner and community ranger Jo Ayers with one of the wood carvings in Linford Wood

The work is the beginning of a five year programme of woodland management funded by a grant from the Forestry Commission.

Shenley Wood is one of three ancient woodlands managed by the Parks trust, which also include Linford Wood and Howe Park Wood.

"As it is an ancient woodland the main focus of our management is to make sure it is still here to enjoy in many years to come," said Tony.

"So we cut down the shrubbery towards ground level (known as coppicing) to allow more light to come through to encourage growth.

"This will allow the regeneration of the ash and oak trees as the trees of the future can come through."

Tony then took me down to the H8 Standing Way, near Windmill Hill Golf Course, and showed me patchy areas of landscaping that need replanting.

"We have got to get the plant orders ready by mid November so we can get them in before Christmas ready for the planting season in January and February," he explained.

"Last year we ordered over 50,000 plants, so its quite a bit of work."

It is Tony's job to choose what is planted and make sure the city is bright all year round.

"One of the reasons for working for the Parks Trust is that everything you do is seen by so many people," he added.

"At South Willen Lake last year there were 1.2 million visitors.

"I guess if it did look a mess that amount of visitors wouldn't be there."

Also in the landscape team, community ranger Jo Ayres patrols the parks in her uniform and Parks Trust emblazoned pick up truck to make sure its users feel safe.

"My role is to be a visual presence in the parks and deal with any anti-social behaviour," she explained.

"We actually have very little problem but anti-social behaviour can include people camping, riding motorbikes or big groups of youths drinking."

"I am mainly here to make feel people feel safe and to make sure if a problem does develop we have got the links to deal with it quickly."

Jo acts a link between the trust and agencies such as the police and councils. She also looks out for vandalism, graffiti, dumped shopping trolleys, or dog fouling.

While I was with her in Campbell Park during the half term holidays we found and cleared up two lots of graffiti and spotted four shopping trolleys.

"Graffiti is one of our biggest problems," she said.

"If it is minor graffiti I will try to clean it up myself, otherwise I will liaise with the council's graffiti team who have special equipment."

"Campbell Park is the worst for dumped trolleys as it is close to the shopping centre.

"I'd say an average of about three a week are dumped.

"This is relatively infrequent but trolleys have a big visual impact and affect how an area is perceived."

She said it would take her nearly an hour to push the four trolleys, which are too heavy to lift into her pick-up truck, to the edge of the park to be collected.

Finally Jo also deals with fly tipping along the grid roads.

"In the winter when we cut back the shrubs on the grid road landscape we find that some people fly tip over their back fence," she said.

"It is a big problem as we have thousands of neighbours whose homes back onto the grid roads."

So when you are out walking the dog remember the team who are working hard to encourage people to get out and enjoy the city's green spaces.

Who will deal with your affairs and welfare if you can't? Don't lose your right to choose your Attorney by waiting until its too late.

From the 1st October 2007 the Enduring Power of Attorney (EPA) has been replaced with a revised type of power called a Lasting Power of Attorney (LPA). However, EPAs made prior to 1 October will continue to be valid.

The LPA has now replaced the EPA as one of the most important legal protection mechanisms for your future. Indeed having an LPA in place is just as important as making a Will because it affects you during your lifetime. The benefit of the LPA is that it will allow you and your family the certainty of knowing who will deal with your affairs and personal welfare if you become incapable of making decisions about these things yourself. Moreover, you will have the comfort of knowing that the Attorney dealing with your affairs is the person of your choice and not someone whom the Court chooses to appoint on your behalf.

Unlike the EPA, an LPA will need to be registered with the Court of Protection before it may be used by your attorney(s).

A person can make two types of LPA, one dealing with financial matters which enables your Attorney to act on your behalf in relation to your financial affairs (as do EPAs) and one concerning personal welfare.

A Property and Affairs Lasting Power of Attorney (LPA) allows you to plan ahead by choosing one or more people to make decisions on your behalf regarding your property and financial affairs.

You can appoint a property and affairs Attorney to manage your finances and property whilst you still have capacity as well as when you lack capacity. For example, it may be easier for you to give someone the power to carry out tasks such as paying your bills if you find it difficult to get about. Please note that the document has to be registered before it can be used.

A Personal Welfare Lasting Power of Attorney allows you to plan ahead by choosing one or more people to make decisions on your behalf regarding your personal healthcare and welfare.

As you can see the protection offered by an LPA can be invaluable. Please contact us today to see how we can help.

Community police make a difference

BY ALICIA BABAEE
alicia.babaee@mk-news.co.uk

A POLICE sergeant has defended the area he covers after it rated highly on a Milton Keynes table of worst estates.

Earlier this month Beanhill was crowned the worst estate in Milton Keynes, with Netherfield coming in second.

But Sgt Jason Kemp says his team of Police Community Support Officers (PCSOs), which covers north and south Woughton, is doing all it can to improve the areas.

The team covers six of the areas that made it into the top twenty worst estates including Beanhill, Netherfield, Coffee Hall, Tinkers Bridge, Eaglestone and Peartree Bridge.

The estates are rated on their social difficulties such as teenage pregancies, people claiming benefits, crime levels, neighbour complaints and educational attainment.

The council's table is called a Social Atlas.

Sgt Kemp said: "Crime here is actually going down. There are things we can't change such as education and how long people live or their income.

"But we can change the environment they live in."

Officers are giving out anti-social behaviour yellow and red cards to youngsters, walking or cycling more than ten miles a day and showing a presence outside schools.

On the beat: PCSO's Sam Stansbie and Gary Ellmer at Netherfield

Drop-ins are held at community centres on weekdays in Eaglestone (1.15pm-2.45pm) and Tinkers Bridge (10am-noon), with representatives from outside agencies attending to help the community.

Currently officers are working on a scheme to reduce anti-social behaviour around Halloween. Shops have been asked not to sell eggs and flour to children.

PSCOs check estates daily for fly tipping and are working with the council to have people evicted who don't comply with their tenancy agreements. Eleven families have been evicted from across the team's area since March.

PSCO Gary Ellmer is trying to engage children in a plan to build a BMX track in Tinkers Bridge, while his colleague Sam Stansbie is working on a scheme to get children doing physical activity for ten minutes before school each day.

Sgt Kemp added: "If people come to us with their problems, we will listen."

Open kitchen planned for new city sushi bar

A SUSHI bar is coming to Milton Keynes.

Fugu will offer sushi, noodles and tepanyaki – food cooked on an iron griddle – at the former Rodeo Bar on Midsummer Boulevard.

The bar, due to open in late November or early December, will have a sushi bar, a main seating area and an area with sofas.

There will be chefs using six tepanyaki griddles, which are being imported from the Far East, and a sushi chef all working in an open kitchen.

Owner Alan Lee said: "People walking past will be able to see the chefs cooking. There will be fire and a warm atmosphere."

Mr Lee also plans to have two Tatimi rooms where people sit on traditional Japanese flooring made of woven straw.

Eventually he plans to have a VIP room upstairs with a karaoke and a chef to cater exclusively for up to 20 people.

Mr Lee added: "We are aiming for a corporate market as there are lots of offices nearby."

Kebab shop ignored 'takeaway' warnings

BY ROB GIBSON
rob.gibson@mk-news.co.uk

THE owner of a city centre kebab shop took away a fine of £6,000 from court after ignoring warnings to keep his waste under control.

Enforcement officers from the Safer Communities Unit regularly found used takeaway cartons, pizza boxes and other rubbish spilling out of the bins within the cupboard at the Al Kebabish in Silbury Boulevard, magistrates heard on Friday.

But despite constant warnings the owner, Ishrel Ahmed, failed to take appropriate action to either keep the rubbish contained properly in an appropriate bin or make special arrangements to have the overflow collected.

He appeared in court to admit six counts of allowing his waste to escape from his control under Section 34 of the Environmental Protection Act (1990) and was ordered to pay £687 costs in addition to a £6,000 fine.

SCU manager Pete Roberts said: "We warned this owner time and time again that he must make additional arrangements for the excess waste to be collected – in the end we had no choice but to take action.

"Food outlets must keep things under control, with their refuse properly contained and stored.

"Not only does inappropriately stored waste deface the local area, it is a health hazard, encouraging rats and other vermin.

"Business owners must make sure that they have appropriate arrangements in place for the disposal of their waste and that they are complying with their duty of care.

"This will hopefully send out a strong message to other similar establishments that they must keep their houses in order."

Another fine mess: Used takeaway cartons, pizza boxes and other rubbish at the Al Kebabish in Silbury Boulevard.

Dogs seized in raid

TWO pit bull type dogs have been seized and their owner arrested after a tip-off from local residents.

Police officers carried out a search at the home in Oldbrook on Friday where they arrested a man on suspicion of possession of illegal dogs. The pit bull breed has been branded illegal in the UK and the two dogs will be kept at a secure kennel until a court decides what should happen to them.

The dogs' owner was released on police bail until December.

Fatal crash on H8

A MAN has been arrested following a fatal car crash on Monday night.

The collision happened at about 7.50pm on the H8 Standing Way near Brinklow.

Police said that a silver Vauxhall Astra was either stationary or moving very slowly in the westbound carriageway when a black BMW collided with it from behind, throwing the female driver of the Astra from the vehicle.

She was taken to MK Hospital where she later died.

Right royal opening for new cafe

A NEW coffee shop is getting ready for a visit from The Queen.

Steve and Vanessa Hunt, co-owners and proprietors of Gloria Jean's Coffees, based in thehub:mk put the finishing touches to their new premises in readiness for Her Majesty's visit to the complex on November 29.

Vanessa said: "Who could believe that within our first few weeks of opening, the Queen would be walking past our door?"

Where there's a will, there's a way to beat cancer

BY ROB GIBSON
rob.gibson@mk-news.co.uk

VITAL research into cancer has been boosted by more than £2million left by city residents in their wills.

Figures released this week by Cancer Research UK reveal that people in Milton Keynes left £2,030,518 to the charity over the last year.

The charity is currently supporting a study at Milton Keynes Hospital into women who are at greater risk of developing ovarian cancer due to faulty genes that have been passed on through their family.

The study aims to find out whether screening these women is feasible and effective and if it will help save lives in the future.

Cancer Research UK receives around a third of its income through legacies or gifts left in wills, funding the work of over 4,250 doctors, nurses and scientists across the UK.

Paul Farthing, director of legacies at Cancer Research UK, said: "Leaving a gift to charity is a simple way for anyone to support a good cause. The money left to us in legacies funded over 40 per cent of our research last year, enabling us to safeguard the charity's vital research into the causes and treatments of all cancers."

More than one in three people in the UK will develop cancer at some time in their lives, with over 37,000 people diagnosed in the South East of England every year.

But more people are surviving the disease thanks to earlier detection, more effective diagnosis and improved treatments made possible by ongoing research.

■ For more information call the Cancer Research UK legacy information officer on 0207 1216697 or visit www.cancer.org.uk/legacies.

Reindeer survive foot and mouth and blue tongue

FATHER Christmas has got his reindeer back.

Live reindeer will be appearing at thecentre:mk's Christmas show on Tuesday after fears that the original deer would not be allowed because of concerns over foot and mouth and blue-tongue disease.

The Cairngorm Reindeer Centre said its herd was unable to travel to Milton Keynes in light of recent Government restrictions.

However, Action Animals near Newbury has stepped in to provide four Santa's little helpers.

Pensioners lobby for more lolly

PENSIONERS have united to lobby city MPs about their financial struggles.

A group from Milton Keynes Pensioners' Association travelled to Parliament last Wednesday to highlight problems that OAPs encounter with rising prices and the low state pension. The UK came bottom of a recent survey of EEC countries which measured the adequacy of state pensions.

The group also lobbied on social care costs, age discrimination and the difficulty experienced by pensioners in Milton Keynes seeking chiropody services. MPs Phyllis Starkey and Mark Lancaster were asked to support the Pensioners' Charter to cover the basic right of all pensioners to a warm and secure retirement.

Young people urged to have flu jab

MORE young people are being urged to have a flu jab amid fears for high risk groups.

While older residents are familiar with the seasonal message, Milton Keynes Primary Care Trust (MKPCT) is highlighting the threat to young people with diabetes or asthma.

Rachel Flowers, the trusts assistant director of public health, said: "Flu could seriously affect the health of more than 20,000 younger people in 'at risk' groups such as those with asthma or diabetes."

According to PCT figures, 56 per cent of 'at risk' residents under the age of 65 failed to get the jab last year.

This left them vulnerable to the side effects of the virus which can lead to bronchitis, pneumonia, hospitalisation or even death.

Mrs Flowers said: "It's a common misconception that only older people suffer when they get flu and that everyone else can shrug it off.

"It only takes a minute to get the flu jab, but this will protect you, your child or grandchild for 12 months."

Those aged 65 or over are advised to get the jab and also those who have suffered a stroke, a serious heart or respiratory condition, kidney or liver disease, diabetes, lowered immunity due to disease or treatment, MS or conditions of the nervous system.

Rail strike threat

MORE Silverlink rail strikes could affect commuters on Friday.

If the proposed walk out goes ahead there will be a reduced service from Milton Keynes, Wolverton and Bletchley to London.

The industrial action is being proposed by train drivers belonging to the ASLEF union after rows over their pensions.

ASLEF claims Silverlink owes its members more than £200m in missed payments. Train drivers struck last Friday (October 26), when all Silverlink train services were cancelled.

It is not yet confirmed whether this second walk out will be taking place.

If it does it will disrupt services on both Silverlink County and Silverlink Metro routes. Virgin Trains willl run as usual.

Midlands morning services reprieved

BY LAURA HANNAM
laura.hannam@mk-news.co.uk

TWO commuter rail services to the midlands have been safeguarded.

Changes in the 2009 timetable planned to remove morning commuter services from Milton Keynes Central station to the Midlands.

After being alerted of the proposals by Milton Keynes and Bletchley Rail Users Group local MP Dr Phyllis Starkey pressured Virgin Trains and Network Rail to reverse the decision.

Virgin Trains has now said that one morning service from Birmingham and another from Manchester Piccadilly will continue to stop at MK Central, on top of the additional services that are also planned.

"I was very concerned that we were losing commuter services from the midlands at vital times of the morning and, MK Chamber of Commerce underlined for me the importance of these links for workers and businesses in the city," said Dr Starkey.

"I am glad that Virgin has reconsidered the matter and that the two morning services from the Midlands have been put back on the timetable."

From 2009 there will be seven morning commuter services arriving in MK Central from the midlands compared to five at present, including one on a new route from Liverpool Lime Street.

Journey times under the new timetable will also be shorter, with up to five minutes shaved off services from Birmingham and a 15 minute reduction on journeys from Manchester Piccadilly.

Wishing Pool kids are having a ball

BY LAURA HANNAM
laura.hannam@mk-news.co.uk

YOUNG disabled people are being offered the chance to climb, horse ride, canoe and more – even if they are in a wheelchair.

This is thanks to money collected at the Wishing Pool in thecentre:mk last Christmas.

Disabled people in Milton Keynes under the age of 19 can have a 90 per cent discount on a special activity holiday in Devon.

More than £20,000 was donated to the Calvert Trust Exmoor, near Barnstaple, in January to give them this opportunity. This was as a result of the Wishing Pool appeal at the shopping centre to tie in with last year's Peter Pan display.

So far 20 have taken advantage of the offer experiencing climbing, abseiling, horse riding, horse and carriage driving, sailing, canoeing, kayaking, archery and using the zip wire.

"They had an absolute ball," said Lisa Young, from the Calvert Trust Exmoor.

"We have plenty of adaptations so they can do all the activities.

"If they can't leave their wheelchairs we can strap them in and let them abseil in their chairs.

"We have a hoist on the jetty so that we can put them into their canoes, or if they can only move a fraction we can put their chair in a boat. We even have an attachment for a sailing boat that allows you to sail the whole boat even if you can only move your head."

The week-long holiday costs under £40 and all their accommodation is accessible. The trust still has £10,000 left but the offer must be taken up before April.

■ For more information or to book call Lisa Young on 01598 763221. Participants must have a Milton Keynes post code.

Spotlight still a beacon in Bletchley

The Spotlight on Bletchley project has been running since 1999. ALICIA BABAEE went to see how things have changed

DEEP in the heart of the Lakes Estate, lives a vibrant project that's nurtured and used by the estate's community.

A few years ago the project, called Spotlight on Bletchley, nearly came crashing to a halt when funding ran out.

Its supporters fought to save it, and with the help of MK NEWS, it succeeded.

But over time, the project has changed. Formerly about funding community groups and initiatives, it now has less money and has taken on a different role.

In 1999 the project was given £1.75m by the Government as part of a five year single regeneration budget.

When the money had been spent, Milton Keynes Council came to the rescue, allowing workers to use its Serpentine Court-based office free of charge.

Now the office is a hub of activity managed by the CrossLinks Centre, also based at Serpentine Court.

Around 100 community members flock to the office each day for a whole host of reasons including free Internet access.

There are two youth workers at Spotlight who work with young people from the estate and from the south of Milton Keynes.

They organise afternoon courses and even fun days out for the youngsters, encouraging them to apply for funding from the town council.

Keith Silverthorne, manager of Crosslinks, said: "It's all about creating opportunities, and getting them to engage in the organisation and what comes after it.

"We run all kinds of activities, in here and outside as well.

"Spotlight is a really positive thing."

One of the youth workers has set up a youth club at the community centre in Fern Grove, which runs on Wednesday evenings.

So many youths are attending that they are looking at splitting the group into two.

But the opportunities aren't just for children.

Keith said: "Adults come in to look for jobs, for help with writing letters, for free phone access."

A tenth of the project's budget - made up of donations, church collections and grants - goes on the phone bill, with residents sorting out their finances and calling places such as solicitors, the National Probation Service, and tax offices.

Residents can also send faxes and make photocopies from the office. Children are allowed to print off homework free of charge.

Spotlight offers free bike hire and has access to more than 50 bikes, as well as trailers for children.

Keith said: "People sign and get a card similar to a library card.

"We have done bike hire for people who work at places like Ikea. Often they have to leave at about 6am and buses aren't great at that time around here."

Other organisations come into the Spotlight office each week, so that residents can access a variety of services.

Confidential sexual health charity Brook attends every Wednesday and Friday between 3pm and 5pm, bringing a nurse and a boys-only worker.

Compass holds drug awareness drop-ins at Spotlight four times a month, Not in Education, Employment or Training attends from time to time, and Adults Continuing Education run free adult computer courses from the office.

A Connexions worker goes in every Monday, explaining topics such as benefits, housing and taxation issues.

On Thursdays, Next Step helps the over 20s with CV writing and getting back into work.

Keith said: "Our window is the biggest notice board you could have, and has a lot of community stuff in it.

"The whole ethos of CrossLinks is Christian support.

"Spotlight supports a vibrant community, a lively community.

"People know if they talk to someone here it won't get shared."

Win a £50 voucher to spend at Poundland

THIS Halloween Poundland is getting in to the spooky spirit.

To celebrate the haunted season the store has teamed up with MK NEWS to offer five readers the chance to win £50 worth of Poundland vouchers.

Poundland's range of spine-chilling Halloween themed products is more gruesome and scary than ever.

This year's extensive range includes frightening fancy dress, petrifying party wear, terrifying treats, devilish decorations and spine-chilling DVDs.

But be warned, it's not for the faint-hearted!

As always, there is also a host of big brand foods and drinks to choose from, ideal for party food and goody bags to fill even the most monstrous appetite.

And with everything priced at one devilishly tempting price of £1, it is enough to have you screaming with delight.

So, if you are prepared to scare and want to give your friends a few frights in the night this Halloween, for the ultimate fun-filled fright fest give Poundland a visit.

For more details on Poundland and to find your nearest store visit www.poundland.com or call freephone 0800 731 5622.

HOW TO ENTER

For a chance to win one of the £50 vouchers just answer this question: How much does everything cost at Poundland?

Send your answer along with your name, address and phone number, to MK NEWS, 1 Diamond Court, Fox Milne, Milton Keynes, Bucks MK15 0DU or by e-mail to competitions@mk-news.co.uk
Closing date November 7.

First correct entries drawn out of the hat wins. The editor's decision is final.

Riverbank revelation

COME out of hibernation and join Toad, Ratty, Mole and Badger for the sensational Wind in the Willows Christmas Show.

From next Tuesday, Middleton Hall at thecentre:mk will be transformed into a snowy riverbank, with wintry forest scenes with weasels, a giant waterwheel and a delightful Romany caravan.

You'll also see Toad's thrilling escapades in his car and carol singers at Mole End.

Every twenty minutes the story-telling Badger will tell his Wind in the Willows tales. Then cross the bridge to Toad Hall which is Santa's Grotto, a place of great excitement for children of all ages.

Entry to the Christmas show is free and runs until January 2.

Regeneration plan

BY LAURA HANNAM
laura.hannam@mk-news.co.uk

UP to £50,000 of council funds could be used to develop a plan for the regeneration of older parts of Milton Keynes.

The regeneration strategy will focus on areas of the city that most need a facelift.

The cabinet at Milton Keynes Council gave the go-ahead last week for up to £50,000 of the earmarked reserve for Economic Development to be used to develop the strategy.

Government regeneration agency English Partnerships is also providing £20,000 and the South East Economic Development Agency (SEEDA) is giving £7,500 through its area programme.

Councillor Euan Henderson, cabinet member with responsibility for regeneration, explained: "There is a general view that with all the pressures of growth in Milton Keynes and all the work that has to be done, we are not putting enough effort into the regeneration of older parts of this city as we aught to or would like to be.

"There is likely to be money coming from SEEDA and potentially from English Partnerships in the coming years but we need to have a clear strategy as to how we are going to use it and where is appropriate for regeneration.

"We need a business plan rather like the one we have for growth detailing what we will do and how much it will cost.

"So we are getting in an experienced company from the private sector in order to help us develop that strategy as quickly as possible."

Areas identified for regeneration include central Wolverton, central Bletchley, the Lakes Estate and Tinkers Bridge.

Further and higher: Children from Bunks and Biddles Nursery being shown how to use a hose by Nairobi City firefighters

Local firefighters help train Kenyans

BY ALICIA BABAEE
alicia.babaee@mk-news.co.uk

TWO firefighters from Milton Keynes have reported back from their trip to Nairobi to help their counterparts develop vital skills.

Crew manager Paul Steinmetz from Great Holm, and watch manager Shaun Cunningham from Bletchley, have been in the capital city of Kenya for the past two weeks helping to train firefighters there.

Buckinghamshire Fire & Rescue Service agreed to release the men for three weeks after being approached by Knight Support's chief fire officer.

The expedition has been organised by Knight Support which provides the fire and rescue service in Nairobi.

Since Shaun and Paul arrived in the city on October 11 they have covered basic training and best practice along with helping in specialist areas such as breathing apparatus.

Shaun said: "We have been welcomed with open arms here.

"The firefighters are very enthusiastic and willing to learn, and we are enjoying being able to pass on our skills and knowledge."

Skills they have taught so far involve ladders, hose laying and casualty handling.

In their final week they will train on extrication – cutting people out of cars – and an assessment of the training throughout the mission.

Paul said: "Training facilities are not as advanced in Nairobi as they are in England but we are making good use of whatever we can find.

"The firefighters are eager and take on board information very quickly.

"They are willing to train under any condition – rain or shine."

The pair have also help with a visit from a local nursery, Bunks and Biddles, to the fire station.

They also helped rescue of over 250 white egret birds as Knight Support was helping the Kenya Society of Protection against Cruelty to Animals.

Knight Support was set up eight years ago and relies to a large extent on goodwill donations of vehicles, equipment and expertise from the UK.

Group manager Steve Foster, who helped set up the trip, said: "Sometimes it's easy to forget that there are parts of the world where even the emergency services need a helping hand from time to time.

"We're very pleased to be able to offer assistance to our colleagues in Kenya and we're looking forward to hearing about Paul and Shaun's experiences when they get back."

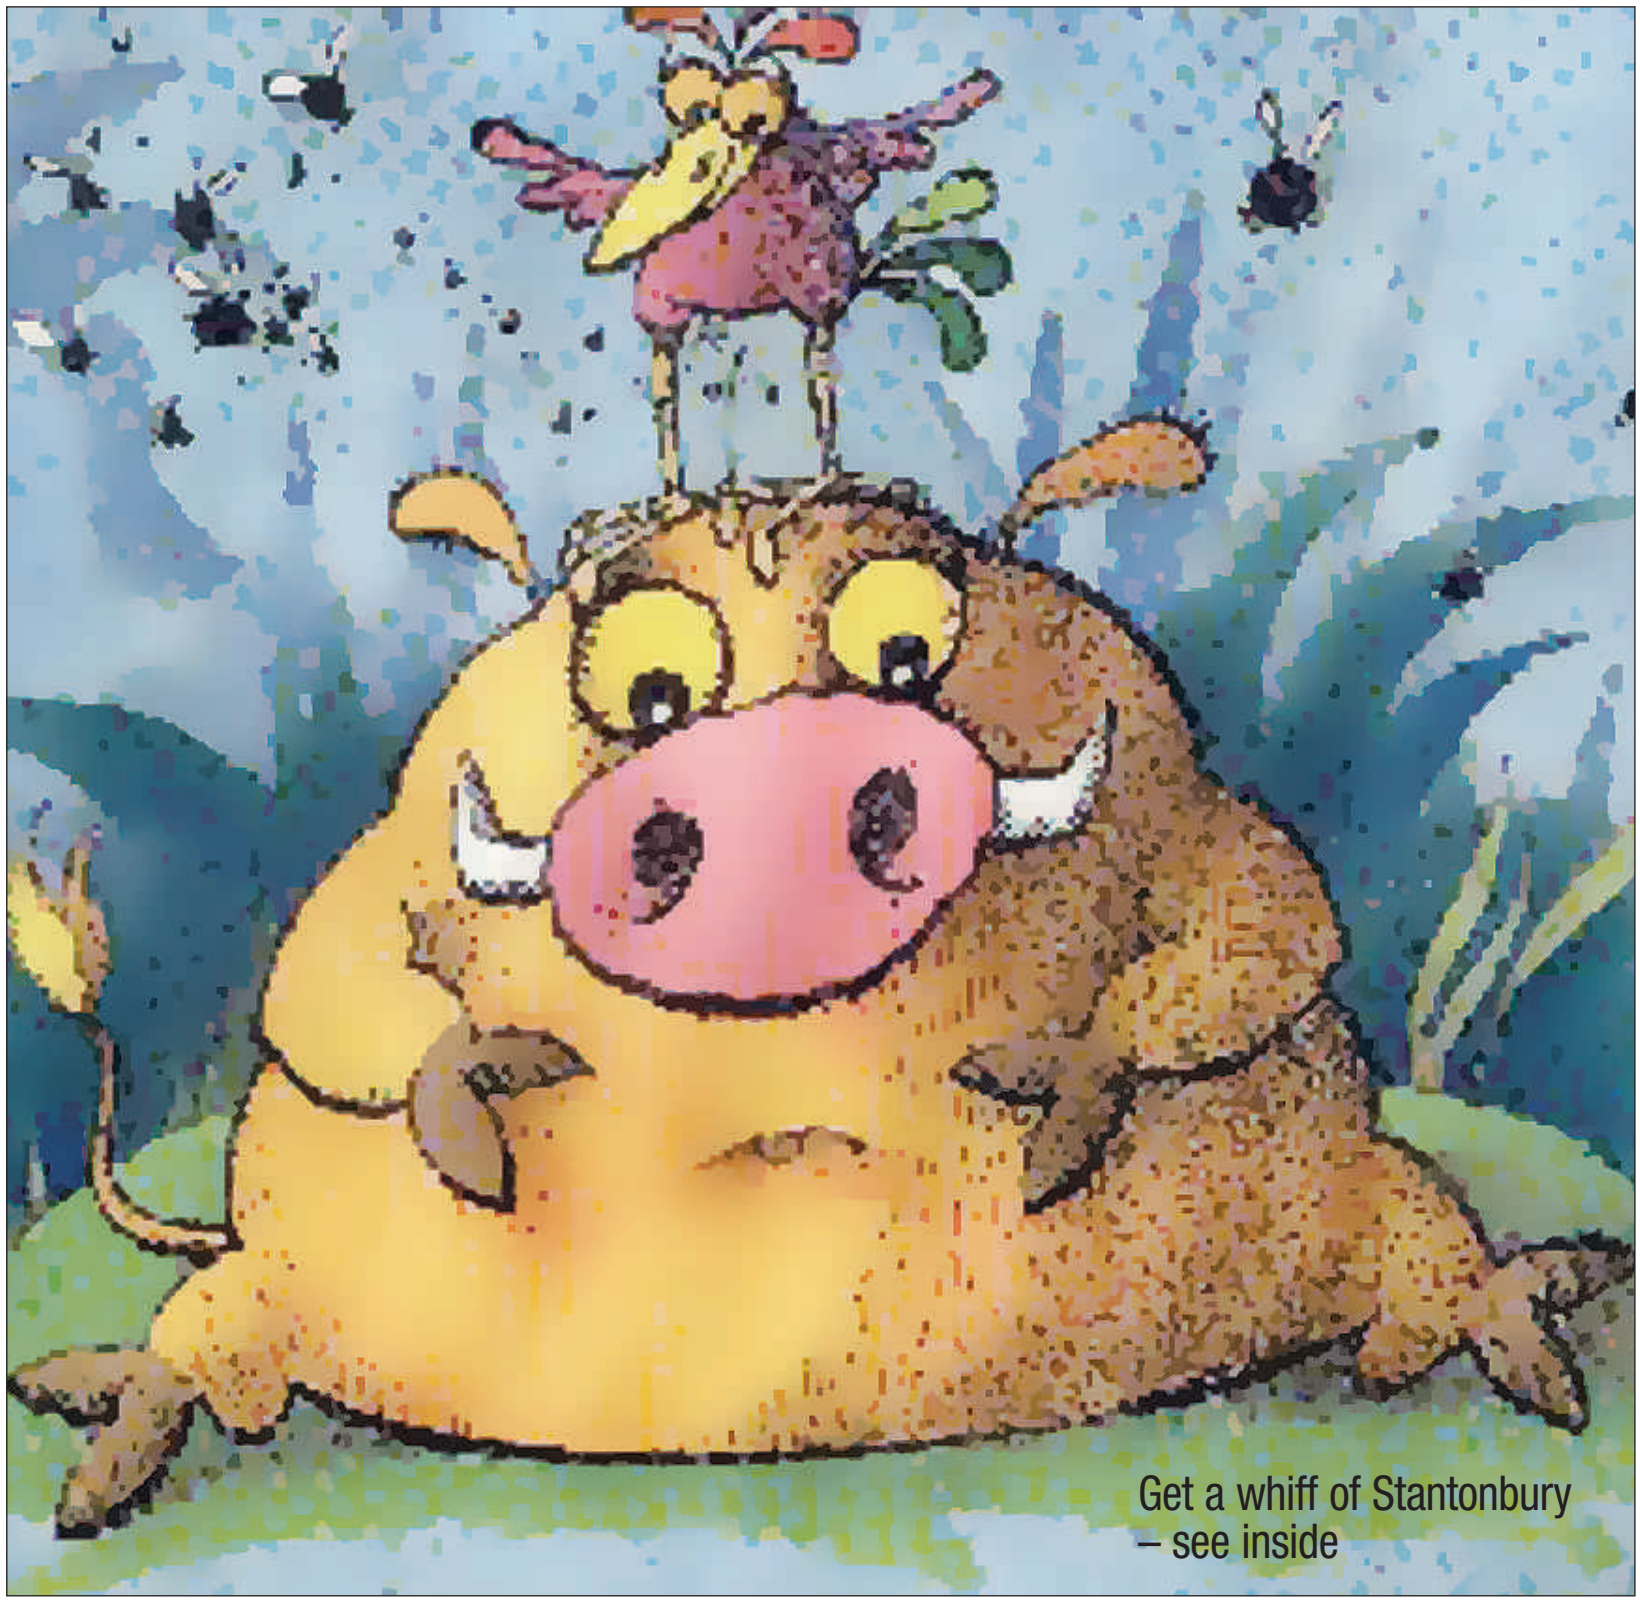
YOUR GUIDE TO LEISURE IN YOUR CITY



Get a whiff of Stantonbury – see inside

DON'T MISS THIS

OPUS

Theatre District

A RENOWNED club night that offers regular people a chance to DJ arrives in the city this weekend.

Stick it On - which allows DJ wannabees to spin tunes for 15 minutes - makes its debut upstairs at Opus on Friday.

Promoter Jason Charles said: "The music's going to be full of fun with chart, disco, blues, folk, big band, soul, 60s, 70s, 80s, 90s, swing, rock, punk, drum n bass, emo – anything.

"This isn't a DJ competition and the people playing may have never have picked up a record before in their life, but they will be doing anything they can to get people dancing."

Rob Drysdale helped to found the night in Brighton ten years ago, and it has since spread to venues in London, Southampton, Clapham and Loughborough.

He said: "It's just a chance them to put some sun in peoples hearts, rock the dancefloor, shake what their mama gave 'em and enjoy themselves.

"You can hear the widest selection of great music that is picked and played by you."

Entry is £4 from 9pm until 2am.

■ If you think you have what it takes to play, then e-mail a list of songs that you think will raise the roof and a DJ name you would like to go by to apply@stickiton.org.uk or text 07973 892382.

Act quickly, because slots are filling up fast.

Wind in the Willows Christmas Display Opens Tuesday 6 November

With only a week to go until the enchanting Christmas display opens, we're all eagerly awaiting the arrival of Santa! At 10am Middleton Hall will be unveiled and there will be larger than life mesmerising scenes, spectacular animated characters and thousands of twinkling lights. What's more, the magnificent waterwheel will turn its magic, Badger will begin his captivating story-telling and the carousel will spin once again!
At 4pm, you can assemble with Santa at door 1, near M&S Food Hall. He'll be accompanied by his majestic reindeer and the adorable Bernese Mountain dogs with their wonderfully decorated carts, from the Midland Bernese Carters. By 4:15, you will embark on a colourful procession to his Grotto and be charmed by the merry crowd entertainers, Weasel and Toad, along the way. Come dressed up as your favourite Wind in the Willows character and join the fun!

The Christmas show wouldn't be complete, of course, without the bands, choirs, nativity scene and the wishing pool! This year, we'll be donating all coins tossed into the wishing pool to Tiggywinkles, The Wildlife Hospital Trust.
To ensure you get your choice of time and date to see Santa in his Grotto, please book your tickets online at grotto.thecentremk.com

ALBUM REVIEW

HEADLINE (FRIENDSHIP NEVER ENDS)

WHATEVER you say about the Spice Girls, you have to admit that there was a time when they were everywhere and I do mean everywhere.

They were constantly on the radio, their singles were invariably at No1, nearly every girl under the age of 15 had a copy of Spice, they were singing about how great Pepsi was (you see, you can't trust adverts), you couldn't even go to the cinema for fear of walking into a showing of Spiceworld: The Movie by mistake.

There were Spice Girls dolls if you wanted them and I wouldn't be surprised if the quintet even stood outside people's houses singing Say You'll Be There non-stop through the letterbox until the occupants finally crumbled and ran, screaming and in tears, to their local Our Price for a copy.

Like I said, everywhere.

So what do we have now that matches up to that? Sugababes? Girls Aloud? Samanda? Pah! Mere pretenders to the throne compared to the onslaught of Gino, no, NO! I'm not writing that phrase. I refuse point blank. It was naff in 1996, and it's naff now. Besides, it reminds me of Puppy Power, so whenever they said it, it reminded me of Scrappy Doo, and that's something no-one should put up with.

Part of the blame must lie with Hanna-Barbera, but that's not the point.

The thing is, their songs weren't the best, not by a long way, but they were having a damned good time recording them and it showed through in abundance on the early singles.

If you enjoy what you do, it can cover up an awfully large number of other deficiencies. Of course, it all went a bit wrong after Geri left, especially with That Difficult Third Album (stand up, Forever, and hang your head in shame), probably because it didn't sound like they were having fun anymore worse, by this time the music was dull as ditchwater, no catchy lines like: 'I'll tell you what I want, what I really, really want' and no memorable riffs either.

Songs like Who Do You Think You Are? may have been a bit naff, but if I'm honest, if it was playing on the radio, I probably wouldn't bother changing the station. On the other hand, Holler is a godawful R&B-wannabe nightmare that I could quite happily never listen to again during my remaining time on this Earth.

Now, here's the bad news, Headlines is in the Holler camp. All that fuss and hype over the five of them re-uniting, and all for this. Even the Wannabe reference in the title can't save this one.

Take That came back with a more mature sound and one day the radio stations might even realise they've done songs other than Shine and Patience.

The Spice Girls, however, have returned with a leaden slab of dirge that anyone at all could've sung and therein lies the problem. You play this to anyone too young to remember them the first time round and you're going to have a tough time convincing them that what I said at the start actually happened.

This doesn't have the Spice Girls mark on it that Spice Up Your Life or Wannabe or even 2 Become 1 had, it's just a generic ballad that's only marginally less interesting than installing Windows on a PC, and I speak from experience on this matter.

Thing is though, this is only really a trailer for the Greatest Hits, and they're splitting up again next year so there's no need to put in too much effort nobody buys a Greatest Hits for the new stuff, it's the classics they're after.

I just think that seeing as this is pretty much the last hurrah the Spice Girls could've gone out with a triumphant bang. This is a monumentally missed opportunity.

BRIT ARTS

PHOEBE UNWIN: A SHORT WALK FROM A SHOUT TO A WHISPER

MK Gallery

Until November 4

THIS is the first major exhibition by the British painter.

Unwin's paintings shift between figuration and abstraction.

Throughout her practice, Phoebe Unwin works incessantly in an A3 drawing book, creating a personal register of images and marks. Individual pages are worked up simultaneously creating visual dialogues, some obvious, some obscure as Unwin teases and collages images, shapes and forms from the format of the page and materials at hand in pastel, pencil and acrylic.

This exhibition will be accompanied by an illustrated catalogue with a text by Max Henry.

ALEX FROST: ADULTS

MK Gallery

Until November 4

BRITISH artist Alex Frost works in a variety of media.

This exhibition will present a selection of recent sculptures, drawings and mosaic panels. These reflect Frost's interest in the conflation of modern technology, the serial and the multiple with a distinctive hand-made aesthetic.

His work ranges from the miniature to the monumental, from intimate decoration to architectural intervention and locates itself in many differing contexts.

Frost's Adults are rock-like sculptures, malformed and enlarged versions of food packaging that are at once sophisticated and clumsy.

AYNT SKYNYRD
Support Shallow Gene Pool
Friday, November 2
THE idea for a Lynyrd Skynyrd tribute band developed from the increasing number of Skynyrd songs that the core band members had been playing more and more at their gigs. And so Aynt Skynyrd was born in January 2006.
The band has a philosophy on recreating the songs of the greatest rock'n'roll band the world has seen, and it's a simple ethos – 'Don't play it, feel it'.
Lynyrd Skynyrd were never about making hit records, although they seemed to be very good at it.
An amazing tribute to an amazing band, this gig will truly blow the minds of all Skynyrd fans young and old.
Tickets £7 advance, £8 on the night. Doors 7.30pm.

Heronsgate
The school for Key Stage 2
Raising achievement through Partnership and Commitment

OPEN EVENING
At Heronsgate School
Wednesday 7th November 2007

We are holding an Open Evening for any members of our local community to come and see the school in action.

The school will be open from 6.00pm to 8.00pm for any member of the community. During the evening, pupils will be working in all areas of the curriculum and it will be a chance for all those who live near us to see what work we do and the excellent levels achieved.

Please do come along (and bring a friend) and see what we are doing here at Heronsgate.

Looking forward to seeing you on the 7th

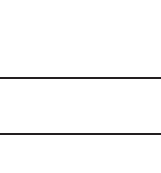
Russell's Love & Relationship Horoscopes



Aries (Mar21-Apr20)
Taking on more and more responsibilities could put a strain on your health. A person who always inspires you presents you with new options and opportunities, but you shouldn't commit yourself until you know exactly what's involved. Be sensible. Call my Aries advice line 09065 504 342 to hear why you need to be cautious and protect your general well being and refuse to let anyone take advantage of your energy and resourcefulness.

Taurus (Apr21-May21)
Be on the look out for an opportunity that might help you attain an aim. You may need to make your mind up quickly and have no time to discuss options with other people. Give a swift and decisive answer when a chance offer comes your way. Call my Taurean advice line 09065 504 342 to hear why you should focus on important projects and avoid distractions and why the weekend will be a time to chill out and reflect.

Gemini (May22-June21)
Mixing with the wrong people could have a negative effect on your reputation. You might feel suffocated or irritated by someone who can't or won't leave you alone. Have you been too friendly for your own good? Have you attracted bothersome people into your orbit? Call my Gemini advice line 09065 504 342 to hear why a newly made friend or associate is relying too much on you for company, help, advice or counsel and why it might be wise to nip this in the bud now.

Cancer (June22-July23)
Friends are making exciting plans for the week ahead and they want you to be involved. You're keen on their ideas and you don't want to be left out of it all. So what's stopping you taking people up on their offers? If you're worried about all your responsibilities and not having time to fit it all in, why not delegate? Call my Cancerian advice line 09065 504 342 to hear why it will do you a power of good to get out and have some fun.

Leo (July24-Aug23)
Some excellent lessons can be learned now because you will be connecting with people in a similar situation and you will appreciate what they have achieved and what they have gone through. Call my Leo advice line 09065 504 342 to hear why it's up to you how you respond to the challenges and opportunities that come your way in the days ahead and why the tough times in life can help you to appreciate and cherish the good times.

Virgo (Aug24-Sept23)
A deep and meaningful discussion helps take the edge off some of the stresses and tensions you've been feeling about a person, event or situation. What you will find is you aren't the only one to feel that way and by joining forces with like minded people you can make some changes. Call my Virgo advice line 09065 504 342 to hear why the end of the week will bring a solution to a contentious matter that will be resolved more easily than you imagined.

Libra (Sept24-Oct23)
Friends and loved ones just aren't tuned in to your needs or feelings. They hear what they want to hear, but when it's something you want to tell them it isn't so easy to get through to them. The good news is that people don't mean to be awkward and there will be compromise in areas where there has been contention. Call my Libra line 09065 504 342 to hear why you may have to be insistent and repeat yourself before you get others to listen.

Scorpio (Oct24-Nov22)
Don't be too quick to condemn and criticise people who are slow to pitch in and help out even though they always promised to be there for you in times of need. Try to understand that they may have issues of their own to deal with that you know nothing about. Call my Scorpio line 09065 504 342 to hear why you should be cautious when it comes to a newcomer at work or in your neighbourhood who seems overly friendly and full of questions and queries. There's a chance they have less than friendly motives.

Sagittarius (Nov23-Dec21)
A friend or colleague who never puts themselves out for anyone might be incredibly helpful to you now. Give them the benefit of the doubt, but don't imagine they have permanently changed their ways. Call my Sagittarian advice line 09065 504 342 to hear why joint plans and team efforts can be crowned with success so long as you stay realistic and realise that things can change rapidly and you have to have other plans and options up your sleeve.

Capricorn (Dec22-Jan20)
You start the week feeling that everything is getting on top of you. Be thorough and methodical to avoid making mistakes. As the days pass the mood shifts and a new determination to create your own destiny pervades your thinking helping you come up with new ideas about reversing the negative trends in your life. Call my Capricorn line 09065 504 342 to hear why positive thinking and your natural pluck and persistence helps you create your own opportunities.

Aquarius (Jan21-Feb19)
When faced with problems you'd rather experiment and investigate the potential of new ideas whilst others will insist on sticking with the tried and trusted methods that have worked in the past. Call my Aquarian advice line 09065 504 342 to hear why it might be best to keep your thoughts to yourself over the next few days until people come to you to see what you have to say about current issues that need the sort of creative and visionary thinking you are so good at.

Pisces (Feb20-Mar20)
There is some uncertainty or confusion surrounding you now and things you don't particularly want to think about will be constantly be preying on your mind. You're highly emotional at this time and simple things will touch you deeply. Call my Piscean advice line 09065 504 342 to learn why taking time out and enjoying a change of surroundings will help free your mind from current concerns and give you a fresh and more independently resilient outlook on life.

THE OLD BEAMS
Paxton Crescent, Shenley Lodge
Reviewed by David Gale

LIKE a Phoenix from the flames The Old Beams has risen from the ashes.

Tucked away in Shenley Lodge, the former farmhouse is once again open for business after a fire gutted the premises almost two years ago.

For those that remember the pub from before, much of the detail of the building has remained to still give it that old world and listed building feel, but it now has a decided 21st century twist.

The new main section is open, airy and inviting. The low roof has gone giving way to a dramatic high-beamed ceiling flanked by huge mirrors at either end.

Outside a new patio with heating has replaced the wooden benches on the grass while inside the restaurant aims to seat around 115.

On the food side it is refreshing to see the produce bought from varying sources rather than one bulk supplier. It also looks after its own portion control on site.

For starters I chose a well-packed crab and prawn cake with salad leaves and smoked chilli jelly (£4.95). The jelly added an interesting kick.

My guest had the baked field mushroom, a generous portion topped with jalapeno chilli and Monterey Jack cheese, topped with a tomato and a parsley flavoured crumb (£4.45).

For the main I chose from the daily specials board and had char-grilled lamb chump chops with mediterranean vegetables (£9.75).

I found this to be particularly good value and the highlight of my meal.

People say you taste with your eyes before your mouth and the presentation of this dish could not be faulted and would not look out of place at any high end gastro pub.

The meat was cooked well and there was a mountain of vegetables.

The same presentation could be said for the other main, grilled red mullet fillets served with a rustic ratatouille and buttered potatoes (£9.95).

Three perfectly cooked fillets and, to be honest, more potatoes than were needed.

The menu is varied without being confusing and includes many favourites like sausage and mash, steak, mushroom and ale pie and fish and chips as well as lamb gigot steak, green Thai curry and gammon hock.

The pub doesn't pretend to be fine dining or gastro – it doesn't want to be either.

But what it does do is serve good honest food in very pleasant surroundings and in a wallet-friendly way.

A needed alternative to the bland and microwave-pinging two-for-one pubs that blight the nation.

The Old Beams is back and I suggest you give it a try.

SURESLIM NEWPORT PAGNELL NOW 2 YEARS OLD

Drop a dress size for Christmas and you could look like this

"I dropped 3 dress sizes in just 6 weeks"

I liked all the wrong foods especially crisps and nuts, and my weight kept creeping up and up. I wasn't happy being a size 18 but crash dieting only made me put on weight.

I had tried a slimming club, but didn't like the group element and their food plans didn't fit in with my social life.

When SureSlim got the results of my blood test, it confirmed that I had high levels of glucose in my system which made me more hungry than I should have been, subsequently I was over-eating. SureSlim then drew up a food plan based on what would work for me. The first week I struggled, wondering how I would cope without milk in my tea, but by week two I wasn't even thinking about it.

I've not just lost the weight either- I've also lost the overwhelming feeling of tiredness that I used to have. I was comfort eating as I was stressed in my job and the weight just crept up. That's when I realized I had to do something. Once I started on the plan to my amazement I lost 10 pounds in the first 10 days!

And now I've reached my goal weight in time for the party season- so I can happily wear my little black dress!

*Typical example: Purchase a property valued at £153,000, 75% (£115,125) is payable at the time of purchase. You then pay the other 25% balance at the current market value at the time of repayment which is due on the earlier of sale or remortgage of your home or 10 years from the date of purchase. This is secured by a second mortgage e.g. If the property is sold, or transferred for £150,000 then 25% (£37,500) is payable to Bellway. If the property is sold, or transferred for £100,000 then 25% (£25,000) is payable to Bellway. Interest is payable after 3 years on the initial 25% balance at a rate of 3% (subject to upwards review on an annual index-linked inflationary basis) due in one lump sum at the time of repayment. YOUR HOME MAY BE REPOSSESSED IF YOU DO NOT KEEP UP REPAYMENTS ON A MORTGAGE OR OTHER LOAN SECURED ON IT. BE SURE THAT YOU CAN AFFORD THE REPAYMENTS BEFORE ENTERING INTO A CREDIT AGREEMENT. This offer is available on selected plots only for completion before December 2007 – subject to applicant's status. Prices correct at time of going to press. Subject to Bellway's terms and conditions and any loan arrangements must be made through Bellway Financial Services using a Bellway nominated solicitor. Inside EX – the one business event you can't afford to miss

Opportunities for promotion, sharing expertise and forging new relationships

THE Inside EX Business Exhibition takes place at the new home of MK Dons on Friday

With a proven track record in providing the most effective business forums, Inside EX is the one event businesses cannot afford to miss. Inside EX's unique style delivers more than an opportunity to connect with local businesses.

It also provides guests with valuable insight from respected business leaders in a series of sessions with expert speakers. The Inside EX event is tailored so any level of company can benefit - from small start-ups to flourishing existing firms keen to expand.

At the heart of each event a central exhibition area offers unprecedented opportunities to promote your business and offers an ideal environment to share expertise and forge new business relationships with others.

The event is designed to create the maximum interest in small to medium sized businesses with displays of services, products and information from a select and varied range of leading organisations.

The exhibition is complemented by a series of seminars, workshops and networking events run by people who want to make your company grow by passing on their vast business knowledge.

With many visitors and hundreds of exhibitors each year, Inside EX brings together new suppliers and customers in a refreshingly different way.

This year The Big Breakfast is hosted by Credit Suisse and Bob Parker the managing director of Credit Suisse's asset management will be talking about where he sees the financial world and and the major opportunities and threats to markets and economies.

The event runs from 7.30-9am a table of ten costs £150 plus VAT.

There is also a chance to have lunch with celebrity speaker and notorious rogue trader Nick Leeson.

The two course lunch runs from 12.30 to 2.30pm

■ For further information on the entire event contact 01908 545380 or email www.inside-ex.com

MK College Elite Football Squad

MK NEWS and Milton Keynes College prove to be a winning team

IT'S the perfect match MK NEWS and Milton Keynes College.

MK NEWS is sponsoring the kit for student sides at the college this season

The boys coached by Mark Walsh play in two leagues, the British Colleges Sport league which features the academy team and the Southern England Students Sports Association league (SESSA) which is for the enrichment team.

So far this season the boys have won four and drawn one of their games including an impressive 4-1 win away at Suffolk New College last Wednesday which put the boys top of the table. The MK goals were scored by Fahmi Tulla, Jamie O'Grady, Andrew Simmonds and Toby Cribbs.

While the girls, coached by Marlese Levermore have an impressive three wins out of three in the SESSA six-a-side league.

The programme allows students to develop their ability as a football player, while acquiring valuable knowledge and skills through courses at Milton Keynes College.

Students receive specialist coaching and the coaches liaise with academic and vocational tutors to ensure that the players achieve their qualification while dedicating their time to the Elite Squad.

The teams train five times a week.

Read future editions of MK NEWS to find out how the teams are doing.

Try a rewarding job as a health care assistant

BY LAURA HANNAM
laura.hannam@mk-news.co.uk

IF you like people and want to help others a position working with adults with learning disabilities could be for you.

A centre in Bradville is looking for caring people to become health care assistants.

The Mathieson Road centre cares for eight residents and has eight respite rooms available.

It is manned by 23 health care assistants and seven nurses.

The care assistant's role includes attending to personal care, washing and dressing whilst always respecting privacy and dignity.

They help those with dysphagia (swallowing difficulties) to eat and drink.

They also act as a key worker for one or two service users, liaising with their families, taking them shopping and generally looking after their interests or concerns.

Rebecca Jones has been a health care assistant at Mathieson road for two years.

"At the moment I am a key worker for two clients," she said.

"Our daily activities are helping them get up, washed, showered and dressed.

"During the week they mainly go to day care elsewhere, but on the weekends I will take them to the cinema, to get their hair cut, shop for clothes and so on."

"We also take them to the Groovy Gecko every three months, which is a club night at Mood held for and by people with learning disabilities."

The health care assistants also help their clients with holidays, activities, and other events.

"Last year I went with a client on holiday to Weymouth," said Rebecca.

"We went to the beach and the sea life centre, they really enjoyed it."

Rebecca, who has been working in care for nine years, said she finds working with adults with learning disabilities very rewarding.

"I have always had a passion for caring for people, I have been working in care since I was 15," she said.

"I love feeling that you are making a difference to people's lives, helping them integrate and access the community."

Health care assistants empower their clients by encouraging them to make choices for every area of their life.

Wendy Wilson, who has worked at Mathieson Road for three years, said: "We try and promote choice as much as we can, through activities appropriate to their understanding.

"We try and help them make every day choices such as offering them two different types of food."

Twenty-year old Wendy added: "I love the job, I couldn't imagine working in any other field."

"It is fun, especially taking them out such as to the city centre or to nights at Mood."

■ To apply for the position or to find out more call Sam Gunner, unit manager, or Karen Kingston, deputy manager on 01908 225164 or 01908 312616.

A great place to start if you want to go further

Customer Representatives
Salary £11,837-£14,796
Bedford

Whether it's putting customers first, inspiring confidence or exceeding expectations time and again, the Nationwide service begins with our Customer Representatives. And it's also the starting point for a great career. Because as we continue to expand, there couldn't be a better time to make the most of all the encouragement, training and prospects we offer.

You'll learn how to welcome our customers into the branch, deal with all their day-to-day needs and identify sales leads. And as your experience grows, so will your responsibilities. Before long, you'll be opening accounts, selling products and hitting targets.

You don't need specific experience – although a customer service background would be a big plus. Much more important is a warm, lively personality, a flair for detail and a real way with people.

As the UK's only mutual building society – owned by customers, not shareholders – we look after the people who look after our business. There are excellent benefits, a close team spirit and, of course, the chance to get on.

Just visit www.nationwide.co.uk/careers and download an application form, or call

production GLASSFIBRE
THE UK'S LARGEST GENERAL MOULDER

Production Glassfibre is the UK's largest general moulder of Glassfibre products. We work from modern factories in Scotland, Lancashire and Bedfordshire, employing 250+between them. The versatility and flexibility of our raw material has allowed us to service numerous industries including civil engineering, construction, automotive, house building and the water treatment sector. Following a recent acquisition, we have begun to strengthen the management team in our Southern operation and the following opportunity exists for an ambitious and driven individual.

Operations Manager

Responsible to the General Manager you will posses a professional "can do" attitude, and the desire to develop your skills and responsibilities within the company.

You and your team will be responsible for the efficient running and development of the labour-intensive production facility, liasing with customers and contractors, managing the drawing & technical function and generally preparing the company for further growth.

You should be able to demonstrate the ability to effectively consume and communicate information, sometimes technical, from customers to shop floor, and utilise these skills to successfully introduce new processes and products.

Having recently moved to purpose-built premises in Willstead, we can offer you an excellent working environment, a competitive salary, the opportunity to develop your skills and abilities in a fast-moving and flexible environment, and the chance to be an important part in a 'winning' team. Applications including CV and present remuneration should be forwarded by

MKMOTORING

BrrrrrrrrMW

BMW is extending the 1 Series line-up with a new model consisting of a brace of high performance twin-turbocharged engines and a diesel capable of a frugal 58.9mpg.

The new BMW 1 Series Coupe is on sale now and will be available in 120d, 123d and 135i guises.

The 135i marks the first time a twin-turbo petrol engine has powered a 1 Series, while the 123d heralds the introduction of the world's most powerful production four-cylinder diesel engine.

The flagship of the range is the BMW 135i with its 3.0-litre twin-turbocharged petrol powerplant.

Offering 306hp from its light alloy and magnesium straight-six engine, the 135i is capable of accelerating from zero to 62mph in 5.3 seconds before going on to an electronically-limited top speed of 155mph.

Peak torque of 400Nm from just 1,300rpm through to 5,000rpm ensures smooth yet rapid progress and in-gear flexibility.

The 204hp four-cylinder engine in the BMW 123d Coupe, sets a benchmark for small diesels.

Its 1,995cc powerplant is the world's first all aluminium diesel to have an output per litre figure in excess of 100hp, something only BMW M cars usually attain.

It is also the first four-cylinder production diesel to come with twin-turbo technology.

The BMW 123d Coupe also makes financial sense.

It is in the Band C Vehicle Excise Duty tier while the fuel consumption figure on the combined cycle is 54.3mpg.

It is aided in this by the use of BMW's EfficientDynamics programme that seeks to boost engine performance while at the same time cut fuel consumption and emissions.

Dynamic Stability Control is standard on the 120d Coupe to act as an electronic safety blanket for the driver.

The BMW 123d and the 135i come as standard with Dynamic Stability Control with five additional safety features. In addition, the 135i CoupÈ has a high performance braking system featuring six-piston callipers for greater retardation.

The new 1 Series Coupe will be a great addition to the BMW range.

The combination of its sporty, yet sophisticated, styling and unmatched engineering technologies ensure it holds a genuinely unique position in the market place.

Ensuring that your car is in safe mechanical condition is a year - round job for every motorist, but it's particularly important as the winter weather takes hold. There are also some specific cold - weather checks and maintenance that you should carry out.

- Add anti-freeze to your radiator if required.
- Keep your windscreen washer reservoir well topped up with appropriate screen washcontaining anti-freeze additives.
- If your car is sluggish to start in the morning, consider replacing your battery.
- Check your tyres. Low tread or unevenly worn tyres are dangerous, particularly during the winter months.
- It's especially important that you continue to regularly check all of the fluid levels, lights and tyre pressures through the winter.

WYCOMBE WANDERERS
League Two
Saturday, November 3. KO 3pm
Adams Park

ONE way to put your first defeat in nine games behind you is to get one over local rivals in the Buckinghamshire derby.

And that is exactly what MK Dons will be looking to do when they travel to Wycombe Wanderers this weekend.

Although Wycombe may have lost danger man Jermain Easter, who is set to sign for Plymouth Argyle after his loan spell, they do have Scott McGeish up front with a similar eye for goal.

The Dons will be without Alan Navarro who picked up his fifth booking of season against Stockport, which could allow Colin Cameron to start alongside Keith Andrews.

Jude Stirling will not feature in the game as he is still out with with the shoulder injury he picked up in training.

GRIMSBY TOWN
League Two

STRUGGLING Grimsby come to town on Tuesday with the hope of repeating Stockport's success and turning their win-less run around against the league leaders.

It has been a difficult start for the Mariners with only two wins in 13 games, but three points came against Hereford United and put an end to the Bulls' 100 per cent away record.

Ahead of their clash with Rotherham this weekend, Alan Buckley's side have not won in five matches and are in desperate need of a good result to push them away from the bottom of the table.

Last season the honours were shared with the Dons winning 3-1 at Blundell Park and the Mariners walking away from the National Hockey Stadium with three points.

MK Dons will start their FA Cup campaign with a tough away game against Crewe Alexandra.

Last year the Railwaymen were dumped out of the cup in the first round when they were on the wrong end of a 4-0 thrashing by Bradford City.

While the Dons had to overcome a first round replay against Conference side Farsley Celtic before suffering heartache to Blackpool.

However, with Paul Ince as manager the story could be somewhat different this time round. He guided League Two strugglers Macclesfield Town to a third round tie against a star-studded Chelsea side.

DONS winger Mustapha Carayol has joined Crawley Town on a month long loan.

The 18-year-old made a dream start to life with the Reds, scoring in their FA Cup fourth qualifying round clash against Conference premier high-flyers Aldershot.

Carayol's impressive debut has already earned his high praise from his new bosses.

Crawley assistant manger Paul Raynor said: "It was a fairytale start for him, he scored with pretty much his first touch, and he showed he is an exciting player.

"When Paul Ince gave us the opportunity to bring Mustapha in, we snapped his hands off because we have been asking him since we played against him earlier in the season."

MK Dons Under-18s recorded their second win on the bounce with a 2-0 win over Tottenham Hotspur.

Nine out of ten ain't bad

STUBBORN Stockport County caused a shock by putting an end to MK Dons' unbeaten run with a 2-0 victory at stadium:mk.

Ahead of the game the Dons had smashed club records with nine consecutive victories while Stockport had not won in four matches.

Despite those records Paul Ince was weary of the threat Jim Gannon's side posted, comparing an out-of-form Stockport to a 'wounded animal' in his programme notes.

But it was the Dons who were left licking their wounds at the final whistle as they failed to extend their lead at the top of the table and fell to their first defeat in almost two months.

Assistant boss Ray Mathias believes his side have had the kick in the backside they needed and was quick to praise the team for their achievements so far.

"I think they've been absolutely magnificent," Mathias said, "when you go nine games undefeated it's a great achievement and a fantastic record for the club.

"I can assure you it's made the lads more determined for the next game. You have your kick in the backside and we've had ours today."

With a 4-3-3 formation Stockport were able to push on to provide a real threat to the Dons but they were also able to recover quickly to form a solid back line.

The Dons had their fair share of opportunities to take the lead with most falling to Aaron Wilbraham, who just could not get the better of goalkeeper Conrad Logan.

Man of the match Dean Lewington

A push in the box prevented Drissa Diallo from claiming his second of the campaign, as the defender converted a corner the referee quickly pointed out the foul in the area and disallowed the goal.

The Hatters' forward Anthony Elding came to life in the second half with several chances of his own and finally made it through to goal when he picked up the ball on the edge of the box and fired into the bottom corner.

Desperate for a response the Dons piled forward in search of a point with Jemal Johnson and Wilbraham having the best chances.

With the hunt for a leveller stepped up the Dons were left exposed at the back which Anthony Pilkington took full advantage of when he doubled the lead in injury time from Liam Dickinson's pull back.

It was the first time this season the Dons have failed to score in a game and Mathias admits they were left to rue the barren ninety minutes.

He said: "There were a lot of chances there that went begging. If we'd have stuck our chances away it would have been a totally different game."

PAUL MITCHELL WRITES FOR YOU

PAUL MITCHELL

PERSONALLY I don't think there were any more disappointed people in the stadium on Saturday than the players.

You could have heard a pin drop in the dressing room.

Let me be the first to applaud what a fantastic effort all the squad have put in so far and to win nine games in a row is superb. It really does speak volumes about the staff and players' characters.

You cannot play well every game, this is a fact, and when we have matches like Stockport this is when we need your help to lift us or even throw off the opposition by creating an intense atmosphere that away teams will fear.

With the stadium being the best in the league and with great fans this shouldn't be a problem.

The season is only just getting into its flow and everybody at the club knows that we have to carry on working hard with the same desire as the last few months to keep the teams behind us at bay.

I have to give Stockport there due, they came with a strict game plan, worked very hard and I thought had a bit of luck as any team will have to as the lads don't give anything away cheaply.

It's up to us now to draw a line under that part of the season and go on another run.

It isn't going to be easy as the quality and form of each team seems to be getting better by the week.

There is no better game to motivate yourself after a defeat than a local derby and that is what we have coming up in Wycombe away.

Derby's are always tense affairs with no one wanting to give the bragging rights away.

This will be no different on Saturday.

In my time at MK Dons the derby matches have always been great to play in and, from a fans point of view, must be cracking viewing.

So with the short trip to Wycombe I hope to see you all there in great voice creating the same noise as last year which, I have been told, was amazing!

Plymouth Raiders 78
(Martin 21, Moore 16, Beasley 12)

MK Lions moved back into the top half of the table as they put their double defeat last weekend behind them to register back-to-back victories.

For the second time this season the Lions took the spoils against Worcester with a narrow four point victory.

Wolves started the better side with a 7-0 burst which proved to be the difference as the Lions trailed 27-20 at the end of the first quarter.

The hosts continued their momentum and continued to build as strong lead as the Lions were firmly put on the back foot falling 50-37 behind at half time.

But the break came at a good time for the Lions as they regathered their focus and tore into the Wolves on the return to the court.

A stunning fightback saw the Lions hit a 21-2 run to turn the match around with Mike New, who scored 14 of his 16 points during the second half, the key to the change in the Lions fortunes as they took the lead going into the final quarter.

Wolves refused to give in though and after falling behind 68-77 they got back within two (82-84) with 40 second left thanks to two three-points shots from player-coach Skouson Harker.

However, the home side could not score the vital basket and Terrell Brown sealed the match from the free throw line.

Their win over Plymouth Raiders on Sunday was equally impressive with veteran Tony Windless leading from the front with 18 points.

The Lions, and particularly centre Shawn Jamison, came out strongly and soon led 11-2 and they maintained their good start to lead 31-18 after the first quarter.

It was much the same in the second as the Lions, led by Mike New and Heizer, had a 60-35 advantage at half time.

However, the Raiders would not lie down restricting the Lions to nine points to narrow the gap on the back of a 14-1 run to make it 69-61 going into the decisive quarter.

The Raiders completed their come back and took the lead late in the game. The Lions held out until there were four minutes left, when a long three-pointer from Beasley made the score 72-73.

DeAntoine Beasley took the game right to the wire with a long three-pointer to take the Raiders within a point but scores from Windless and Heizer and Brown sealed the victory for the Lions.

ICE HOCKEY

Coach rues leg break

MK Lightning lost their first league game at the weekend, but the biggest blow was two of their big stars picking up injuries.

The defeat came on the back of a comprehensive win over Chelmsford Chieftains in the EPL Cup.

Both Ales Parez (shoulder) and Greg Randell (fractured tibia) were sent to hospital following Lightning's 1-0 defeat to Romford Radiers and could be facing lengthy spells on the sidelines.

"Despite the loss the most upsetting aspect of the game was the injuries that we have suffered," player-coach Nick Poole added, "Greg got caught with his foot planted in the ice and looks to have suffered a broken tibia.

"Ales made a great hit on one player behind their net and was then jumped by a Romford bench warmer from behind.

"The most disappointing thing is that fellow sportsman can have such a lack of respect for their opponents."

The club are waiting for the swelling to go down before they can assess how long the players will be out of action for.

Lightning played their usual attacking game but could not breach the Romford defence and Juraj Rusic's goal proved to be enough for the Raiders.

Poole said: "The Raiders scored early in the match and then defended desperately for the remainder of the game and if it were not for some great net minding and a few posts we could have won."

The news had been better for Lightning as they moved closer to a semi-final place in the EPL with a stunning victory over the Chieftains.

Lightning got an early shock as Kaupo Kaljuste put the visitors in front after two minutes, but MK hit back through Chris McEwen and Toni Alasaarela.

It was in the second period when Lightning started to take control, despite Cotton pulling the Chieftains back on level terms, with Gary Clarke hitting the third before Mikko Skinnari got his name on the score sheet.

Alasaarela completed a hat-trick at the start of the third period and grabbed his fourth at the end while Clarke and Parez also posted goals.

RUGBY ROUND-UP

SOUTHERN COUNTIES NORTH

MK pushed up to sixth place in the league with their first home win of the season over Swindon.

Swindon took the game to MK right from the offset with a converted try helping them take a 10-3 lead, before Steve Christe and Phil Powell hit back with two tries to give MK a 15-10 advantage at the half.

An early penalty pulled Swindon just two points but their scrum-half was sent to the sin bin which effectively ended their game.

Powell added a penalty before MK's good work at the line-out saw the backs exchange some neat passing and Powell crossed the line for his second try of the afternoon and converting to give Olney a 25-13 win.

OLNEY almost lost their undefeated tag in a very close contest against lowly Newbury Stags.

Rhys Peakman opened the scoring for Olney when he skipped passed three missed tackles to score under the posts and flyhalf Dave Smith followed suit shortly after as he crossed the line.

Newbury upped their game and following some intense pressure their tight head prop crossed the line before an intercepted pass allowed them to grab their second.

After the break Johnny Carr posted Olney's third try but Newbury kept up with the scoring and were left to rue two missed conversions as they lost out 21-22.

Sights on Olympics

A 15-YEAR-OLD boy from Bury Lawn School is setting his sights on representing Great Britain in the 2012 Olympics.

James Leitch, a Leighton Buzzard Canoe Club member, is currently training to take part in placid water canoeing for the London Olympics in five years time.

Earlier this year the talented youngster represented Great Britain Under-16s in the 500 and 1,000 metres and 2.5K in a tournament in France.

Next year Leitch will again compete at international level with more than 2,000 other competitors set to take part over a distance of 24 miles.

Canoeing is not on the curriculum at Bury Lawn School but Leitch is certainly raising the profile of his chosen sport.

Three on the trot

MK Men's Hockey Club won their third consecutive match as they beat a strong Sunbury side 5-3.

After 15 minutes Russell Brazier picked up a short corner to fire MK into the lead, but Sunbury were quick to reply and a break away goal just before half-time saw them go ahead.

Despite being the better side at the re-start MK fell 3-1 down and were forced to dig deep to get back into the match.

MK found the back of the net twice within two minutes to get back on even terms, Ali McColl then put them into the lead before Jack Vandross sealed all three points.

Dons upbeat despite defeat

BY SIMONE CORGAN
simone.corgan@hotmail.co.uk

DEFEAT for the first time in nine games has not affected the mood in the MK Dons camp.

With five games in 15 days coming up the Dons have no time to mull over the shock result against Stockport County, instead they are looking to bounce back with a win over local rivals Wycombe Wanderers.

One player keen to get the Dons back to their familiar winning ways is Keith Andrews.

The Dons' captain believes the side need to dust themselves down and bounce back with a good performance this weekend.

"The result against Stockport is just something we need to get on with, do well, kick on and go on another run.

"I thought we deserved something but we didn't get the rub of the green, we had a lot of chances that we should have put away but it just wasn't meant to be on the day.

"Over the last ten games we've done fantastically well to be in the position we're in."

When Andrews joined the Dons last season it took him a while to settle, but in this campaign he has scored goals for fun and is one of the first names on the team sheet.

However, his form has not gone unnoticed among those in League Two and his role on the field has been somewhat restricted due to teams man-marking the midfielder.

Keith Andrews and Danny Swailes in midfield on Saturday

"It can be a little bit frustrating," Andrews added, "but if I can't get the freedom or make an impact on the game then someone else has got to stand up and make sure we do as a team."

Had the Dons won against Stockport they would have moved five points clear at the top of the table, fortunately results went their way and they still have a three point advantage, but the setback did put a stop to the club's record breaking winning run.

Andrews added: "We're going to be breaking records for quite some time because of the type of team we have and the club's only a few years old. It's a great achievement to go on such a run but not necessarily for the record, just to get us where we are in the league and where we want to go towards the end of the season."

Andrews is not the only Dons midfielder to be making waves in the game, with academy star Liam Kelly making his under-18s debut for Scotland at the weekend.

The 18-year-old came on as a second-half substitute in Scotland's 2-1 defeat to Turkey and he will remain with the side as they take on France tonight and the United States on Saturday.

Kelly told the Dons website: "I thought I did ok, I wasn't expecting to be involved until the next match but the manager decided to put me in.

"It took me a few minutes to get used to the pace of the game but once I'd had a few touches I enjoyed myself."
